

Text Her To Bed

A Complete man's guide to sleeping with hot women using simple text messages

When you are looking to capture the eye or perhaps heart of a girl, or looking into how to seduce a girl over text. First of all you have to have a connection with her, if there is no connection she will rarely respond to any sexual talk; only the odd one every now and then will follow through.

Now, before you continue reading you need to know this: Sexual escalation through text messages and phone calls is slower than in person and that's why I always advise to try to set dates with the woman.

With that said

You must take your time, be patient and the results will come.

When it comes to women, timing is everything. You don't want to be texting her when she's busy or having a fun time with friends. Evening are usually the best times to have the back and forth messages.

I understand most guys have absolutely no clue what to text girls. They use the same old lines and predictable questions that every other sad and pathetic guy uses.

But it's not their fault, they just haven't taken the time to see what really works in the real world... so instead follow a pattern the inevitably leads the girls to being bored and not willing to meet with you.

One of the most effective ways to flirt with women and create sexual tension when texting girls is to use misinterpretation. The idea here is to assume the girl you're texting is attracted to you and is actively hitting on you. Flipping the script like this and assuming the girl is chasing you and thinking dirty thoughts about you allows you to turn the conversation with the woman sexual in a fun and playful way.

Here is an example on how to text girls using misinterpretation:

Her: okay you are seriously the sweetest. Can I keep you?

Response: Like in a cage? Probably not... in handcuffs for a night...maybe

It takes about 5 to 9 days to text her into your bed. However you must know that every girl is different and these are just some indications based on experience.

You don't want to make the mistake most men make texting, thinking they can continue on the emotional stage you were with the girl when talking in person.

It doesn't work that way. You have to take her through different phases every time you open a chat with her to eventually get what you want. Here are the various stages you must take her through;

1. Opening
2. Warming her up
3. Sexting (creating sexual tension)
4. Close: set a date

What Not To Text A Girl

If you say the wrong thing to a girl in a text message, she'll usually respond with the following stock messages (if she responds at all):

- "Hey, I'm not actually looking for anything serious right now, so just wanted to let you know :) x"
- "Listen, it was nice meeting you but I'm currently seeing someone right now"
- "I'm really busy with work and stuff at the minute so can't really get into anything with a guy"

So now we have the stock messages out of the way, here's what you shouldn't be sending her...

- "Hey cutie... Wow, hard day in the office. How's things with you?"
- "Hi Sarah, was nice meeting you today. Are you around this evening for a drink?"
- "Hey, really enjoyed talking to you last night. Want to meet up this weekend?"

- “Hi, was just thinking about you... are you cool?”

See how boring these messages are? It's like you're texting your sister, there's no sexual vibe or cheekiness going on. So she's not going to want to text you back.

How To Tell If She's Not Interested

For some annoying reason, men are STUPID at reading signs when it comes to women. Both in person and over text messages.

Here's how to tell if the girl is not into you, which leaves you with two options... 1) you can leave it and go to the next girl or 2) you can use the formula below to re-ignite a fire under her ass!

1. She responds with 1 liners like “Yeah thanks...”, “cool...”
2. She doesn't text you first
3. She takes quite a while to respond, to every single text
4. She doesn't respond at all! (OBVIOUS ONE HERE BRO!)

Ok, so you know what not to say and you also know how to tell if she's not into you... now I want to show you the secret sauce. The formula I use to get girls turned on and begging me to meet them incredibly fast, all from the first text.

Are you ready?

Cool. Let's get stuck in then.

Open With A Funny Intriguing Message To Hook Her

You need to grab her attention, make her smile or laugh and make her want to text you back. The funny openers should always be the first text to send a girl. So you could say something like “How’s my favourite little brat doing today?”.

The aim of this text is to make her smile/laugh as soon as she reads the text, putting her in a good mood and associating that feeling to you.

Here are more funny openers;

- “So I thought I just saw you, and went up to say hi, but it turned out it was this mexican girl”
- “Knock knock...”
- “Hey princess, I Just came back from the aquarium and I saw the cutest fish there...it reminded me of you”
- “I miss you and wanna see you, but this dumb security guard won’t let me in the zoo. Is there any way you can escape?”
- “I just made you open your phone for no reason...looks like I got you in check =]”
- “Girls are gross... “
- “SURPRISE!”

Build Comfort

Building comfort and rapport makes her trust you, this is an important part of the interaction because it means she will be willing to meet and potentially have sex with you.

You could say something like “Something about u seems to always make me smile”.

A girl may feel uncomfortable getting sexual with you through text – especially if she doesn’t know you very well. She’s going to be less inclined to open up sexually if she’s worried you might judge her, or blab to your friends about the intimate things she said that were meant only for you.

To show her it's okay to open up, you want to be accepting of anything she says once the conversation turns sexual. If she's sexually insecure, accept that part of her. If she's into wild, freaky stuff you never would have thought of, accept that, too. You don't necessarily have to like or agree with her fantasies but you can still welcome them, validate them, and allow space for her to have those thoughts and feelings without judgement.

Another way to help a woman feel comfortable opening up sexually is for you to open up and share your own sexual interests or fantasies first.

By taking the first step you show it's safe for her to follow you down this road. It can also get her to feel as if it's "her turn" to share her own thoughts and feelings around sex, and compel her to open up to you.

Build Sexual Tension

After some back and forth banter, you'll want to start building sexual tension so she begins thinking about having sex with you. So you could say "I don't know who your boyfriend is...but he's not spanking you enough!".

Using dirty texts can be very effective and here's why I think dirty text messages are so cool and appeal to the lazier men:

- Women get turned on by words – Women are serial fantasists, which mean that get massively aroused by words and imagining sexual scenarios. This can give you tremendous power.

- It's private – Your phone is private to you, so none is going to read those texts unless you want them to. This allows her to be very sexual and naughty without her friends finding out and calling her a slut.
- Low pressure – There aren't any cock-blocks, social pressures or uncomfortable silences which means that she will be open to say things much faster than she would in person, without the same thought process of a high pressure situation.
- You set the tone and pace – It's up to you how fast or slow you want to build things up sexually with a text and no matter how long you leave it before you reply, you will always start from that point. Meaning you won't have to start the whole sexual build up all over again.

So now you know why a dirty text can be effective, let's move onto the actual dirty texts to send girls to get them all hot and bothered.

3 Dirty Texts Examples That Will Get Her Turned On Fast

I've put these examples into 3 types. From mild to aggressive, all of them work so it's up to you to try them out and see which works best for you. You can also mix them up with different girls based on how sexual they are too.

Naughty But Nice (Flirty Banter, Always A Sexual Undertone)

- Her: Hey you, how's your day going?
- You: Well hello my cheeky little fuzzy chicken... a little boring if I'm honest. Need some excitement today
- Her: What kind of excitement?
- You: Dunno, like a submissive maid who does everything I ask...
- Her: Shall I get the outfit out of my closet for you?

- You: Yes... and make sure you pick up my dry cleaning on the way... otherwise daddy will be angry.
- Her: Is it bad that I like it when daddy is angry?
- You: Yes. And for that I'm going to have to put you over my knee you naughty girl.

Blah blah, you get the picture. She basically loves the tease, because it's naughty... you're leading the texts and she's being submissive.

The Hunter (No Fluff, Just Straight To The Point)

- You: So it's Thursday evening... work almost done and I've got an overwhelming erection, what is a man to do?
- Her: Get some ice
- You: Now now missy, that's naughty. You weren't given lips like that for nothing... get the high heels, some red lipstick and get to my place sharpish
- Her: And if I don't?
- You: I will find you... kidnap you... blind fold you, tie you to my bed and have my way with you... even when you can't take it anymore.
- Her: See you at 10...

The Fantasist (Building Up A Sexual Story In Her Mind That Will Keep Her Horny All Day Long)

- You: Just been to see Batman... What a badass
- Her: Oh yeah?
- You: Yep, that deep voice, crazy ninja moves and rock hard six pack... ooooo
- Her: You got the hots for Batman?
- You: Are you telling me that if Batman grabbed you, took you back to his lair, whispered dirty words in that deep gravelly voice and dominated you... you wouldn't like it?
- Her: Mmmm... ok I'm in

- You: Damn. it's 11pm, where the hell can I get a bat suit at this hour...
- Her: Forget the bat suit, just bring the gravelly voice!
- You: On my way miss...

3 Simple Sexting Tips For Guys

Here are some helpful sexting tips that will keep you on track and not feel like you're stuck after the first bump.

Don't Jump The Gun

Let's get something straight here, women like guys who are sure of themselves and their actions. So you need to be that guy when texting, however this doesn't mean that you want to be too brash with your words.

For example, you don't want to say something like:

*"Nice meeting you yesterday, can't wait to f**k your brains out this week"*

This isn't going to work on any girl, there's no sizzle or flirting, it's just too direct and she will think that you think she's a slut. Game over.

A better example would be:

"Nice meeting you last night... can't stop thinking about that sexy little bum... Not getting any work done today, you're a bad influence young lady! "

If You Offend Her, Just Move On

There will be a point during your dirty texting session that you may offend her, this is totally fine as you need to see where the line is with each girl. But what you don't want to do is apologise like a needy little bitch.

You need to give an underhanded apology, like this...

Her: "Erm... ok that was a little rude"

You: "Ooo I didn't hurt your feelings did I? Ok you get one spank and that's it... ok two, but that's my final offer."

Set A Sexual Frame Early On

Most guys are too afraid to turn on the sexual vibe with text messages in case they screw it up. My advice is, don't worry about screwing it up... if you did a decent job when you met her, then a text message won't ruin the attraction unless you're a total tard.

Switch on the naughty stuff and keep dialing it up from the very first text.

Always try and turn things into a sexual innuendo, it's much more exciting than a boring "how's your day going" text.

These are great jokes to texts girls as they show women you are comfortable around the topic of sex which allows her to be comfortable with it, too.

This may take some practice, but know that the more you use sexual innuendos, the easier it becomes to spot them. Certain words and phrases tend to lend themselves to sexual innuendo quite easily.

Don't Text Too Much

If you are the man that's going to text too much, you will be screwed when all is said and done. When you are the man that is trying too hard, which means texting too much, you are going to show this girl you want that you don't have the confidence to grab her and hang on. End of the story.

Capture Her Undivided Attention

Hot girls always have more than one man hunting them down so you've got to stay cool and act fast. She's likely already texting with a few so you need to take action to get yourself noticed.

When you are communicating by text, your best move is to text first about some of the things you talked about in your face to face conversation. If you haven't met face to face, then you just need to keep it simple and positive.

Use open ended texts/questions (I talked about this in how to escape the friend zone) so she has the open door to keep the text messages flowing.

When you know something personal about her, you are one step ahead of the rest. People like to feel special and when you pay attention to and are interested in the details, that will flatter her.

Try not to text her about the weather or what's in the news. Talk about things you know are important to her and you're on the right path.

Short And Sweet Wins The Race

Gone are the days of longwinded love letters. We live in a fast paced world and this means the shorter, the better when it comes to communication. Just think of all the short form slang we use instead of full sentences!

When you are texting with a girl, make sure your texts are short and sweet and straight to the point. You want to make her curious but leave the door open for her imagination to take over. You want her to come back with a text for further clarification or more information.

Do you see where I'm going with this?

Another great tactic to use is mirroring. If she shoots you a four letter text, you should reply with four letters. Also be sure to use clean grammar so it looks like you actually did go to school.

Don't Forget Your Main Focus

Never lose sight of your main goal, which of course is to seduce her. Sure, it's sweet to have nice conversations but that will get old fast.

What you want to do is seduce this girl via text and then ask to take her out. Look to set the stage to hook up asap and the ball will be in your court quickly.

Make sure you never send closed text messages. Always leave her room to reply or ask her a question with each text. You want to keep the communication flowing.

Trigger Laughter

When you learn how to make her laugh via text, you've just struck gold. When she's laughing, her guard is down and the door is open for you to slip in.

Girls like to be teased because it shows a guy has interest. You are looking to bridge the gap between personal and lightly intimate.

Many men will do whatever the girl wants. They are desperate. By teasing the girl instead you separate yourself from the crowd and show that you are a man of value. Girls love that.

Here are some examples from Nick Notas how to tease a girl:

Tell her you wouldn't get along: "I can't believe you like Twilight, we can't be friends anymore."

Accuse her of hitting on you: "Are you hitting on me?"

Disagree with something she said: "No way, lame!"

The Golden Rule

As a real man you must make sure not to look desperate. Therefore you should never overtext:

"As a general rule, whoever is putting the most effort into the communication is the one doing the chasing. So if you want to have any shot of getting a girl to chase you, then you must not over-text. Instead, look to keep the text ratio close to 1:1 and text the girl about as frequently as she texts you." The Art of Charm –

Women love it when a man flirts with them in a mischievous manner. You can start a bit of seduction with flirting and progress from there, following her lead.

Brush a tad over sexual or naughty conversation, but don't overdo it or you'll be in the doghouse.

Use emoticons to personalize your texts so she feels special. When you show her you are willing to make each text special for her, you are winning in the seduction department.

Timing Is Important

Figuring out when and how much to text, isn't so easy. Should you text her before bed or first thing in the morning? Is there an inappropriate time to text?

Tip: Don't do good morning texts

Keep an open mind with this but do pay attention to how long it takes for her to reply to your messages. The sooner, the better but just because she hasn't replied in an hour doesn't mean she isn't interested.

She could be at work, having a nap or taking a bath!

Do NOT shoot a text after text when she isn't replying. Try one for one and be patient for her to reply. The last thing a girl wants is a guy sending her 20 text messages when she hasn't replied to the first one yet.

In general, it's best to text a girl in the evening because during the day she's usually busy with work etc...makes sense?

Set Up A Date

You have managed to start texting girls with simple openers, build comfort and trust with the girl and engaged a bit in sexting to turn a girl on over text. Now it is time to close the deal. Here is how to do it.

When you went through the steps thoroughly it is easy to text a girl into your bed. She reacted well to your opening, she got the impression that you care about her without being desperate, she knows that the game is on by engaging in sexting and now all it needs is to go for the close.

Here is what a lot of guys do wrong when texting girls and asking for a date:

Do not ask the girl for a date. Tell her to have one with you instead.

By texting a girl something like “Hey, want to meet up on Friday?” you are using a question that can be answered by yes and no. You therefore push the responsibility of whether or not the two of you should have a date on her.

As a real man it is your task to take that decision. It does not mean that you don't give the girl the opportunity to decide whether or not she wants to meet with you. She can say no whenever she wants but it has to be YOU who takes the decision and says that now is the time that you should have a date.

This is how to text girls to meet up (after you went through all stages above):

You: What are your plans for this weekend?

Girl: Nothing planned yet. What about you?

You: Good, because you will then come over to my place where we can have some drinks and dinner and maybe go to join a party afterwards.

Note: You meet at your place instead of a bar because that's where your bed is where you are aiming to end up with her. Her place would work as well though

You: What works better for you? Friday or Saturday?

Note: Instead of asking her a yes/no question you are using an either/or question. This way the girl has not to decide whether or not she should be dating you but will think instead if its going to be on Friday or Saturday

Girl: Friday

You: Ok, so be here on Friday at 7pm. My address is ...

Keep in mind that this will most likely not work if you ask her out without building trust before. You need to go through all steps of the process. While with some girls this might go faster that with others, you always have to open the conversation, build a bit of trust and warm her up, show her what you are looking for through sexting and then close the deal.

When She Doesn't Text Back

There can be many reasons why a girl doesn't text back. Here are three approaches you can take.

1 Relax

Many times girls don't write back because they are busy. That is why I recommended to text girls in the evening when they are free.

When a girl doesn't text back it is often enough to just wait a few hours. Do not send the same message again. This would make you look too eager and needy.

2 Have more girls in your pipeline

By the way, if you frequently freak out when a girl doesn't text back you should get more girls in your conversion pipeline.

If you are just texting one girl at a time, chances are high that you become way too eager to get her.

In these situations it becomes even harder when a girl doesn't text back. Therefore you should get out and meet more girls that you can text whenever one girl doesn't text back.

3 Follow up with teasing messages

As a real man you want to communicate that you are the one to be chased. When a girl doesn't text back you should not follow up with messages like "hey, did you get my text" or "why are you not writing back". Tease her instead.

Here is a funny example to use when a girl doesn't text back:

"Oh boy! You know how to play hard to get! We have not started dating yet and yet we are moving too fast!"

Conclusion

How to text girls is not always easy. But if you follow the steps outlined above you will be ahead of other guys on how to text girls into your bed. You need to open the conversation with a simple text, reduce her nervousness by building trust and talking about topics she likes. Thereby you show interest in her without coming over too desperate. Finally you can turn her on over text by using a bit of sexting and finally set up a date at your place.
